Dear Name:

Hunger Task Force is Milwaukee's Free & Local food bank. We have been providing help to get emergency food to people in need since 1974. We know firsthand that hunger hurts families and seniors. People should not suffer from hunger in Milwaukee.

We are in touch with you because we believe you may be eligible for help to buy the foods you need and want. We want to help you make ends meet.

There is a federal program that helps low-income people buy food at the store with a debit card. Every month, money for food is applied to the debit card. The debit card is called QUEST and is only good for food purchases. Most stores, including corner stores accept QUEST.

This federal program is called Foodshare in Wisconsin. Due to the pandemic, Foodshare is currently providing up to $250 in monthly food-buying money for a single adult. Sometimes people don't apply for Foodshare because they think taking it will prevent another family from getting help. This is not true. Sometimes people don't apply for Foodshare because they think it is a hassle. Hunger Task Force has staff that can remove the hassles and get you signed up.

- 1. You can apply for FoodShare by signing and dating the enclosed form and mailing it back using the enclosed envelope.
2. You can choose to apply over the telephone by calling 888-947-6583.
3. You can get help to apply from Hunger Task Force in-person by visiting one of our locations: Alicia's Place (4144 N. 56th St., Phone number 414-988-6501) and at Robles Center (723 W. Historic Mitchell St., Phone number 414-238-6484).

If your budget is tight and you wish that things were easier, please take our offer of help. As early as next month, you could have less to worry about when it comes to eating well.

Everything we do at Hunger Task Force is free of charge and dignified. We look forward to helping you!

No appointments are needed at our two resource center locations. Visit our knowledgeable staff to receive in-person assistance between 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday & Friday and between 8:00 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. on Wednesday.
